Representative Kristina Roegner

37th House District

State Representative Kristina Roegner is serving her third term in the Ohio House of Representatives. She represents the 37th Ohio House District, which includes portions of northeastern Summit County.

Prior to her time in public office, Representative Roegner worked as a management consultant at McKinsey & Company, serving global clients on performance issues and remains a McKinsey Alumni Consultant. She also was a field engineer and project manager for Westinghouse Power Generation Service Division, where she was responsible for leading teams in overhauling large turbines and generators at power plants across the country.

Graduating cum laude in 1990, Representative Roegner has a Bachelor's of Science in mechanical engineering from Tufts University and her Masters in Business Administration from the Wharton School of Business.

Representative Roegner served as an elected member of Hudson City Council from 2005-2010. As part of the Budget Reduction Ad-hoc committee, she helped to lead Hudson City Council in 2006 to reduce the budgeted city spending and size of government. She was also a member of the Board of Directors at Seton Catholic School and Leadership Hudson class of 2007.

Representative Roegner and her husband Eric have three daughters and live in Hudson.
