Representative Jonathan Dever

28th House District

Representative Jonathan Dever is currently serving his first term as state representative. He represents the 28th House District, which includes the northern suburbs of Hamilton County.

A lawyer by trade, Representative Dever is the founder of the Dever Law Firm, located in West Chester where he helps families and businesses survive, expand and thrive.

Representative Dever is a member of the Ohio, Cincinnati and Butler County Bar Associations. He and his family attend Hope Church where he serves as a financial coach to families in need of advice.

He grew up in Montgomery, Ohio. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati with a Bachelor's Degree and then from Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a Master's degree, and later earned his Juris Doctorate from Capital University.

Representative Dever and his wife, Martha live in Madeira with their two sons.

The Ohio Statehouse Columbus, Ohio 43215 (614) 466-8120 rep28@ohiohouse.gov