

Representative Scott Ryan

71st House District

State Representative Scott Ryan is serving his first term in the Ohio House of Representatives. He serves the 71st District, which includes portions of Licking County.

He has been the owner of a printing company for 25 years and has served as Licking County treasurer. A third-generation resident of the county and member of the Granville High School Class of 1983, he graduated from Miami University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.

In addition, Ryan has extensive volunteer leadership experience with local nonprofit organizations including service as a member of the Board of Directors for First United Methodist Church in Newark, the Licking County Family YMCA, and the United Way of Licking County.

Scott Ryan and his wife Shellie live in Newark with their two teenage daughters.
