

Representative Greta Johnson

35th House District

Representative Greta Johnson represents Ohio's 35th District. A first term representative, Johnson looks to shake up Columbus. A force of energy and passion, Johnson understands the issues and fights for the people in her community every day. She brings a strong voice for education, women, and criminal justice to the Statehouse. Johnson works to ensure children in Ohio get the best education&mdash;no matter their background. She is also a fierce advocate for women, voicing concerns over sexual assault and domestic violence.

Rep. Greta Johnson attended the University of Akron, earning her BA in Secondary Education in 1999, MA in Higher Education Administration in 2001, and her JD in Law in 2004. She has worked in the Prosecutor's Office for Mahoning County, Summit County and the City of Akron since 2004.

Rep. Johnson's experience allows her to understand the pressing issues facing her community, from education and jobs to the health and safety of children and families.

Rep. Johnson is a married mother of two. She understands the hardships facing many Ohio families today. From finding quality jobs to accessing the best education, too many Ohio families are falling behind. Johnson comes to Columbus hopeful and determined to make an impact in the lives of folks across her district. She speaks out for justice, jobs, and opportunity for all Ohioans. Her professional experiences put her in a unique position in the Ohio House and she looks forward to tackling another challenge. Rep. Greta Johnson sees a bright future for the 35th District&mdash; she works every day to make it a reality.

Rep. Johnson serves on the House Judiciary Committee, House Armed Services Committee, Veterans Affairs and Public Safety Committee, House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee and the Joint Committee on Agency Rule Review.
